

How to vote your shares at the AK Steel Holding Corporation 2014 Annual Meeting of Stockholders

AK Steel stockholders who held shares at the close of business on March 31, 2014, the record date for the 2014 Annual Meeting, are eligible to vote their shares at the meeting. Access information (stockholder account number, proxy access number, control number) was sent by mail to stockholders beginning April 21, 2014, and that information includes instructions on how to vote your shares. If you have not received or have lost your information, the instructions below provide assistance for voting your shares.

Stockholders of Record. If your shares are registered directly in your name with the Company's transfer agent, Computershare Investor Services, LLC, you are considered the stockholder of record with respect to those shares.

- For assistance and instructions on how to vote your shares: Please call Computershare Investor Services, LLC, toll free at 1-888-294-8217.

Beneficial Owners of Shares Held in Street Name. If your shares are held in an account at a bank, broker or other institution, then you are the "beneficial owner" of shares held in "street name." The entity holding your account is considered the shareholder of record for purposes of voting at the Annual Meeting. As a beneficial owner, you have the right to instruct that entity on how to vote the shares held in your account.

- For assistance and instructions on how to vote your shares: Please call the bank, broker or other institution that maintains the account in which your shares are held.
